Rom. 10:12, “For there is no difference between Jew and Gentile—the same Lord is Lord of all and richly blesses all who call on Him.”

Aren't you glad that Jesus didn't come for just a select few? I'm amazed at some of the “spiritual leaders” of the world who hold out this concept; God's love only for a select, “chosen” few. If this were true, then so many verses in scripture would have to be eliminated; including this one. Let me share just a few with you:

1 John 2:2, “He is the atoning sacrifice for our sins, and not only for ours but also for the sins of the whole world.”

John 3:16-17, “For God so loved the world that he gave His one and only Son, that whoever believes in Him shall not perish but have eternal life. For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but to save the world through Him.”

2 Cor. 5:21, “God made Him who had no sin to be sin for us, so that in Him we might become the righteousness of God.”

1 Tim. 2:5-6, “For there is one God and one Mediator between God and men, the Man Christ Jesus, Who gave Himself a ransom for all, to be testified in due time.” (NKJV)

2 Pt. 3:9, “The LORD is not slow in keeping His promise, as some understand slowness. Instead He is patient with you, not wanting anyone to perish, but everyone to come to repentance.”

Now that, my friends, is a God Who loves everyone! My God is not a God Who would create someone and not give them a chance at salvation. His love is too great for that! Can you give Him some praise? Amen and Hallelujah!

Dear LORD, thank You that Your love is bigger than any sin, anywhere, any time by any person. You are a gracious and loving Father. We praise Your Holy and loving Name. In Jesus Name, Amen
