Ps. 27:11, “Teach me Your way, LORD; lead me on a level path because of my enemies.”

The Hebrew word for teach is hovreni which means to give instruction, direct or to shoot straight. David is calling upon the LORD to give him the instruction that he needed to be able to face the obstacles ahead. There is no greater source we can go to except the LORD. He has all wisdom and knowledge.

In today’s world, we tend to look to the “experts” for their instruction or advice. Someone once said it like this: X is an unknown quantity, and Spurt is a drip under pressure. An “expert” is therefore an unknown drip under pressure. There are so many experts trying to tell you how to dress, how to talk, how to fix your dryer, where to go on vacation, and on and on it goes.

We can be sure that our God has everything we need to know Him and to follow His will. He will pour out His wisdom to us if we will submit ourselves to Him and abide in His presence. Before you go to some so-called "expert," my suggestion is go straight to the source of all wisdom, the LORD Himself. Jer. 33:3, “Call on Me and I will answer you, and I will show you great and mighty things which you cannot understand.” He is inviting you and me to call upon Him; to come to Him; to abide in Him; so that we can learn from Him.

Jesus told His disciples the same thing in Mt. 11:29-30, “Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I AM gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy and My burden is light.”

Dear LORD, we need Your wisdom. Please teach us in Your way. When You do this, we will begin to see and understand things from Your perspective. Help us LORD, In Jesus Name, Amen
