

December 17, 2022

The Lord wants you to experience real and abundant life:

Luke 2:7 And she gave birth to her firstborn son; and she wrapped Him in cloths, and laid Him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn. (NASB)

NO ROOM. No room for them in the inn. Things have not changed so much, have they? For the majority of people in this world, there is still no room for Jesus. Not only do most push the idea of Jesus away (probably because they don't want to admit their failures and sins), but many don't even believe this well documented story. There is no room in their hearts and minds to believe.

What is interesting about this narrative is that this has been God's desire all along. He has always wanted to dwell with His people. From the Garden of Eden to the place where you live, He has always desired to abide with us, Immanuel. The question is, will you make room for Him in your heart? Rev. 3:20 Here I Am! I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears My voice and opens the door, I will come in and eat with that person and they with Me. (NIV) I know that He desires so much to be accepted into those He created. He wants us to enjoy true fellowship with Him and to be able to abide in Him continuously and eternally. The choice is left up to every individual. What will be your choice? Will there be room in your heart for Him? This is the most important choice you will ever make in your life. Is there room in your heart for Him?

Dear LORD, my heart is Yours. You are my dwelling place. I desire to be in Your presence forever and enjoy the goodness of You. I pray that will be the choice of countless others. In Jesus Name, Amen