The Lord wants you to experience real and abundant life:

Pv. 3:5-6 trust in the LORD with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways submit to Him, and He will make your paths straight. (NIV)

Now as we saw yesterday, David thought it critical, to walk upon the path of life. Today, we see Solomon's advice to his own son. What a blessing to see a legacy of wisdom passed down through generations. I can only pray that my children, their children and even their children will share the goodness of the Lord in the land of the living. And Solomon's teaching was about our path as well.

The beginning of this walk on the path of life is based in our trust upon the Father. The LORD is worthy of our trust. He is able to fulfill our trust. He calls upon us to trust in Him. Solomon's father had no doubt sung these psalms of praise many times to his young son. Ps. 28:7 The LORD is my strength and my shield; my heart trust in Him, and He helps me. My heart leaps for joy, and with my song I praise Him. (NIV) And again in Ps. 9:10 Those who know Your name trust in You, for You, LORD, have never forsaken those who seek You. (NIV) And even another in Ps. 37:4-6 Take delight in the LORD, and He will give you the desires of your heart. Commit your way (path) to the LORD; trust in Him and He will do this: He will make your righteous reward shine like the dawn, your vindication like the noonday sun. (NIV)

When we walk in the trust of the LORD, He fills us with His life. This life is not available to this who merely exist physically. It only comes with the metamorphosis into the spiritual life brought by the Spirit of God. When we trust in the LORD for our salvation, He then gives us eternal and abundant life. And then we can see and experience the path that He has set before us.

Dear LORD, You are the way, the path. Your ways are always right and just. You lead us with Your Spirit as we lean into You and listen to You. Help us not to trust in the teachings of this fallen world, but to wholly lean on Jesus' name. Trust in You leads us into a life of glorious fellowship. Thank You LORD. In Jesus Name, Amen
