The Lord wants you to experience real and abundant life:

Ps. 63:7-8 Because You are my help, I sing in the shadow of Your wings. I cling to You; Your right hand upholds me. (NIV)

Do you know why we can sing in the shadow of the LORD's wings? It is because that is the place of complete and perfect protection. No one or no thing can touch you when you are in the safety of the arms of the LORD. No one can stand against Almighty God. He is all powerful and He will protect His children.

There is no better feeling than to feel completely safe and protected. I remember our storm shelter when I lived with my grandparents on the farm. We had multiple tornadoes come through our area every year. We could always go down in the storm shelter where we had food, water, and a kerosene lantern. I kind of enjoyed being down there with all of my family as we waited for the storm to blow through. The thing that made me feel so safe was that my Grandpa never looked worried. He would just sit in his old rocking chair and hum a few old hymns while Mom would read a children's Bible to us.

In this picture, the psalmist paints one who is clinging to the LORD. When you cling to Him you can be absolutely sure that you will be protected. You are safe. You are loved. You are wanted.

Dear LORD, thank You for Your perfect protection from the storms of life. We can find our rest and comfort in You. You will always look over and guard Your children. Thank You LORD. In Jesus Name, Amen
