The Lord wants you to experience real and abundant life:

Heb. 12:28-29 therefore, since we are receiving a kingdom that cannot be shaken, let us be thankful, and so worship God acceptably with reverence and awe, for our God is a consuming fire. (NIV)

This is our stability in a very unstable world. The Greek reads: We are constantly and perpetually receiving a Kingdom that is incapable of being shaken. This is a Kingdom that we have already received. Why then, do we not live in it? It must be from our own disbelief or capability to comprehend it. We have received His promise. We have it in principle. We received it by His power and His sacrificial provision.

So, what should this cause us to be? The answer is clearly, thankful. Our constant thought and motivation should be our grateful thanksgiving to the One Who gave up everything for us. He stepped down from glory and took on the appearance as a man. He humbled Himself, yes even unto death. And not just any death, the worst kind of death ever, crucifixion.

And, what should this cause us to do? We should be worshipping Him continuously and consistently in our daily walk. This should cause us to pause all along the way and just thank the LORD for everything He has given us and everything He has forgiven us. He is our all in all. He is our source of real life. He is a consuming fire. This means He is not satisfied to have some of us or part of us. He wants all of us.

Dear LORD, we come to You today as Who You really are. You are our mighty and loving Father. You are our conquering King. You are the only One worthy of our praise. LORD, take all of us today. We are Your people. You are our God. In Jesus Name, Amen
