The Lord wants you to live in His liberty and freedom.

Ps. 86:5-7 For You, LORD, are forgiving and good, abounding in love to all who call to You. Hear my prayer LORD; listen to my cry for mercy. When I am in distress, I call to You, because You answer me. (NIV)

Not only is the LORD ready to forgive us, He already has. This issue is will we receive that forgiveness. The price has been paid for us. Our sin-debt is covered. He has made us acceptable by His own blood. Why would He pay such a high price? It is because of His great love for anyone who will call upon Him. No matter how many times we have fallen, He will receive your heart-felt cry for forgiveness. His love never ceases. It is continually overflowing with no end.

This is the loving God that is ever ready to listen to our heart's cries and to come to us in our times of distress. And His prayer line is never busy. He answers every call. You can call on Him in the middle of the night or during the busy time of day. He is always available. He is looking forward to hearing your heart. Jer. 33:3 Call to Me and I will answer you and tell you great and unsearchable things you do not know. (NIV) Come to the Father and you will never be disappointed. He is never too busy for you. He delights to hold His children in His arms. Take some time today, throughout the whole day, to just call upon Him. Listen to His loving voice as He leads you. His Spirit will calm an anxious heart and guide a confused mind.

Dear LORD, You are all I will ever need. You are forgiving and good. You abound in love as I call upon You. You hear my cries for help and You come and rescue me. Praise You LORD! In Jesus Name, Amen
