Because God loves you, He Provides- Part 194

Did you know that God loves you more than anyone else could ever love you? God proves His love to you by His irrevocable love. Rom. 11:29, “for God’s gifts and His call are irrevocable.”

The Greek word for irrevocable is ametameleta which means it cannot be changed by any circumstances, or set in stone, final. What a blessing it is to think about the saving love of God. His gift of salvation cannot be revoked. There are many people that have the notion that salvation can be lost. Not according to God and His Word; and that’s all that matters. It matters not what some man might say, but what God has already said.

When Jesus came to live upon this earth and walk among men, it was for the purpose of letting people see what God is like. And, to show or demonstrate the love of God for us. The price that Jesus paid upon the cross was enough; enough for you and for me. Once this price was paid (and it was), there will never be a sin that was not paid for. You are covered. I am covered. And the payment can never be changed, revoked or made null. Hence, the choice is left to every person to decide if they will receive this wonderful gift or reject it. God will make no one take it or keep anyone from it.

I hope you know that once you receive the gift of salvation, it is yours forever. God will not change His mind or His Word. Once you are saved you are always saved because God will not be shamed; what He has said He will do.

Dear Father, thank You for Your irrevocable love. We can stand upon Your Word because of Who You are. Praise You Lord. In Jesus Name, Amen
