Ps. 8:1-4 LORD, our Lord, how majestic is Your name in all the earth! You have set Your glory in the heavens. Through the praise of children and infants You have established a stronghold against Your enemies, to silence the foe and the avenger. When I consider Your heavens, the work of Your finger, the moon and the stars, which You have set in place, what is mankind that You are mindful of them, human beings that You care for them? (NIV)

David shouts his praise to the LORD. How majestic is Your name in all the earth! Lord, there is no one like You. David is declaring, to anyone who will listen, that the LORD alone is God. And then he goes on to proclaim that the praise of children and infants is stronger than any enemy of the LORD. It is in the innocent trust of a child that you find the most secure and blissful place. I've never spoken to a child who didn't already know there was a God Who loved them. The praises of young children are stronger than the mightiest army that might march against the LORD. Their trust is stronger than the swords and weapons of the evil one.

David then looks at creation. It is too much to comprehend. It is greater than anything we could think or imagine. Astronaut Neil Armstrong once said, "It suddenly struck me that that tiny pea, pretty and blue, was the Earth. I put up my thumb and shut one eye, and my thumb blotted out the planet Earth. I didn't feel like a giant. I felt very, very small." - Goodreads.com

When you think about the incredible order of all the planets and their orbits. The multitude of stars and galaxies is more than we can even take in. It is literally mind-blowing to try and understand the magnitude of it all. And here's the 'kicker.' He just spoke it all into being. It wasn't there and He spoke and it was there; in perfect order, in total completeness. Oh LORD our Lord, how majestic is Your name in all the earth!

Dear LORD, Your name is great and worth to be praised. You have created everything and put it in its right place. You named all the stars. You know every grain of sand on the sea shores. You are too wonderful for us to comprehend. Hallelujah! In Jesus Name, Amen
